The income claims presented here are not intended to serve as a guarantee of income for anyone. Instead, they're designed to give you an idea of what's possible with the 5 Get 5 Lightning Referral System. Success with 5 Get 5 – as with anything, requires leadership, hard work, commitment, persistence and dedication.

Any monies earned, income claims made or examples given, relate to other people and the mathematical certainties of the 5 Get 5 System. No-one can give you a guarantee of what you may or may not earn. Some people will earn money, others may not. No one person or company can give you any assurances of success. You must take responsibility for your own success and accept that there is risk in any venture and that it may not work for you personally and you could end up earning absolutely nothing.

Sometimes specific amounts of income are mentioned on video/audio or written on a webpage or in an article. These will be attributed to individuals, couples or businesses. You have to accept that these results belong to those people mentioned and will not have any bearing on your results. Any statement or claim relating to income or earnings with Lightning Referral cannot be an indication of your success or result in the future.

Any success that relates to income is made up of many different factors, such as your own work ethic, business or leadership skills, your personal performance or your ability to communicate effectively. No-one knows how well you or anyone else will do in the future, because only you know your own capabilities. By using our Lightning Referral System you agree that we are not responsible for the success or failure of any business decision you make, either now or in the future.
